San Antonio Zoo Honors U.S. Military Personnel with Free Admission During Zoo Salutes presented by THE USAA FOUNDATION available to active duty, retired, veterans and reserves.

San Antonio Zoo® is showing appreciation to the United States military by offering free admission for the entire month of November. Zoo Salutes, presented by THE USAA FOUNDATION, honors active duty, retired, and veteran members of the military, National Guard, and reserves with free admission (with proper ID), and up to four guests can receive 50% off standard admission on the day of visit from November 1 through November 30.

This offer is made possible with the support of THE USAA FOUNDATION and helps us pay tribute to our country's heroes who often sacrifice family time to protect our freedom.

"We are honored to have the opportunity to thank our military during the month of November," said Tim Morrow, San Antonio Zoo's President & CEO. "Military families are a special part of our community, and in partnership with THE USAA FOUNDATION, we're able to extend our gratitude through Zoo Salutes."

As a bonus, active duty military, retired military, veterans, and reservist will get to enjoy Whataburger Zoo Lights when it kicks off on November 20; operating times may vary.

Admission Details:

- To claim a free admission ticket, active duty military, retired military, veteran members of the military, national guard, and reserves must show a valid ID at the zoo's front gate.
- Military personnel must be present
- Up to four (4) guests receive 50% off standard admission ticket
- If a military member is on deployment, family members can still receive the 50% off up to (4) guests when showing their military dependent ID
- Additional discounted admission tickets must be purchased at the zoo's front gate
- Tickets must be used on the day of redemption
- Offer cannot be combined with any other offer or discount
